

I am very concerned about Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air the anti-Kerry "documentary" just days before the election, with no stated plan to air a balanced "anti-Bush" or "anti-Nader" piece.

This unbalanced use of public airwaves is extremely undemocratic, and it seems to me, illegal. Shouldn't Sinclair air be paying for this air time, as what they call a "documentary" could more aptly be described as a pro-Bush advertisement?

Finally, shouldn't they be required to give equal time to all presidential candidates?

Please respond to my queries, and let me know how you are handling this problem.

Sincerely,

Linda Ann Vorobik
